

February 2008

Contributed by Administrator
Wednesday, 27 February 2008

Dear Graduates,As we celebrate UP College of Dentistry's 93rd anniversary, i hope that we have taught you well, that you become role models for others in the same profession and beyond.Kindness, patience, perseverance and trustworthiness are but a few of the virtues we have tried to inculcate in you.We believe that you will succeed and "bloom wherever you are planted."God bless our new dentists and our alumni. Smile! - Dr. Elz